Then on 2003 Susan was diagnosed with breast cancer. We lost her 3 years later on october 30 2006 at 3:07 am to cancer. The lord was ready for her and she is in a much better place. She was a good women and loved everyone dearly and will be greatly missed by alot of people but we stay strong by knowin she know longer has to suffer.If anyone has anything that they would like to add please feel free to do so. We all love and miss her.*
